

Parent Web 2.0 Tools Certificate of Authenticity

Terms & Conditions:

1. Students accessing or using any web 2.0 tool are required to keep personal information out of their postings. Please refer to McKinney ISD's online AUP (Acceptable Use Policy).
2. Students will not share their user name or password with anyone other than their parents.
3. Students will not log in as another classmate.
4. Assignments using Web 2.0 tools are like any other assignment in school. Students, in the course of completing assignments are expected to abide by policies and procedures in the Student Handbook, including those policies regarding plagiarism and acceptable use of technology as a MISD student.
5. Student work may be a forum for student expression. However, they are first and foremost a tool for learning. Refer to McKinney ISD AUP online.
6. Students shall not use the Internet, in connection with teacher assignments, to harass, discriminate or threaten the safety of others. If students receive a comment used in school that makes them feel uncomfortable or is not respectful, they must immediately report this to a teacher or administration, and must not respond to the comment.
7. Students accessing any tools from school using school equipment shall not download or install any software without permission, and shall not click on ads or competitions.
8. Web 2.0 tools are allowed within the classroom in accepted parameters, but does not imply an "entitlement of usage" by the student just because they have an account.

Parents/Guardians, please initial those suggested Web 2.0 Tools that your student has an account for and you are authorizing to access in an educational setting. Feel free to let me know additional sites/tools that you would like to see your child use, if possible in the "other" applications. We will be updating this form occasionally, if needed, with the newest form usurping the previous one on file.

*Indicates these programs are anticipated to be used in our education lab setting, but possibly would want to be accessed at home for additional work if involved.

Other suggestions:

I have read and understood the policies regarding these Web 2.0 Tool activities. I understand that it is my responsibility to take an active part in monitoring any internet activity by my child.
